6 BEDROOMS | 3 BATHROOMS | 4 RECEPTIONS | FREEHOLD

A substantial detached Edwardian family house, originally built for the Rolls-Royce founder, the Honourable Charles Rolls, which spans approximately 5,000 sq. ft. and features a gated carriage driveway and detached garage. This hugely impressive home has a country house feel and has been in the same family for over thirty years.

The property offers well-balanced accommodation across three floors plus a cellar, set on a private plot in coveted West Putney. An impressive hall with an open fire leads to a spacious drawing room with a feature fireplace and bay window, as well as the first Marston & Langinger conservatory, perfect for morning coffee with garden views. A large sitting room at the rear has an open fire and French doors overlooking the landscaped garden. The kitchen/breakfast/family room, featuring a pretty Aga and bespoke Chalon kitchen, serves as the home's hub with access to the garden and includes a second conservatory for additional light and space.

Ground floor amenities also include a Martin Moore utility room and a charming cloakroom. The lower ground floor has a four-room cellar ideal for wine storage and workshops.

On the first floor, the sumptuous principal suite has a high-end en-suite and dressing room, alongside two additional double bedrooms and a fabulous multipurpose 'sun lounge' with garden views. The spacious top floor includes a large double bedroom with an almost 'fairytale' en-suite bathroom, another double bedroom, and attic space.

The wide plot accommodates a pretty garage that could be converted into office or gym. The substantial and beautifully landscaped private south facing garden features lighting for summer evenings, while the front offers ample off-street parking through the carriage driveway.
