Share of Freehold

A beautifully presented one bedroom garden flat within a fabulous period building in a magnificent Victorian terrace, which benefits from its own good size private back garden. The façade is in impeccable condition after recent stonework and pointing restoration. Offered with no onward chain, the 744 sq ft are arranged with a practical layout and a pleasing sense of proportion throughout.

Crescent Lane sits within easy reach of Clapham's cafés, shops and green spaces. Clapham Common is nearby for large open green space, and only a short walk to many main bus routes, while Clapham Common Underground station provides Northern line connections into central London. There is on street permit parking, and this section of Crescent Lane is generally residential traffic only.
