Occupying a prominent end of terrace position within the Abbeville Village, this very much wider than average, Victorian house extends to over 2,300 square feet and has been comprehensively reworked, with both a loft conversion and side return extension already completed. The result is a well balanced family home that combines retained period character with a more open and practical modern layout.

Narbonne Avenue sits at the heart of the Abbeville Village, immediately accessible to its independent shops, cafés and restaurants. Clapham Common is a short walk away, along with Clapham South Underground station, placing the property within a well established and highly regarded residential setting that remains both connected and convenient.
